

Please do not weaken Indiana's "No-call" law by allowing businesses with a prior relationship (e.g. a bank) to call. Just because I go to a bank does not mean I want them calling me during dinner. This no-call list has made a big difference around our house, and I do not want banks or any other business to circumvent that list for any reason. I want my privacy and peace at home respected.